

Primary Inspirational Image

→ This was my primary inspirational image. I was drawn to this image because it reminded me of the impressionist and fauvist paintings I had looked at in my research. It was the link between my abstract world and the real world. I used this image to inform the overall color palette and texture of the design.